Everyone possesses talent.

And excuses —

Humans tend to avoid confronting themselves and push things that don't go well onto others and their circumstances.

I want to be a person that's bad
at making excuses.

vol. 3

The woman of royal blood.

La femme de sang royal.

The histoire of Innocent has entered Crimson Revolution Arc, 'Rouge' — !!!

Charles and Marie face the "original sin" committed by 'the first Sanson'. The two siblings swear to live for their lofty ideals and to overcome this karmic retribution...!!

And now, France approaches the moment of a new King's birth.

The young Auguste and Antoinette stand at the pinnacle of power...

As the dynamics in Versailles change,
what will happen to the uproarious lives of the Sanson siblings...?!!

Ce volume 3 contient les épisodes numéro 14 à 20.
This Volume 3 contains chapters number 14 to 20.

Europe Before the French Revolution

L' Europe avant la révolution française

The answer to the question 'What family were you born into?' determines a person's life.

For all of human history, 'birth=heritage' has ruled society.

Before the revolution, France is an 'absolute monarchy'.

Kings were considered representatives of God, ruling by divine right and wielded absolute power over the administrative, legislative, and judiciary aspects of government.

People were split into the levels: the 1st estate, the clergy; the 2nd estate, aristocrats; and the 3rd estate, common people. The 2% of the aristocrats and clergy ruled the 98% that was made up of commoners.

Through tax collection and methods that represented legal amnesty, aristocrats enjoyed wealth and privilege while the common people lost everything they had, including their lives, to support the aristocrats.

While the aristocrats were in constant struggles for power under the king, the common people starved——

At the current point in time, France is in a confrontation with England. France once allied with Prussia in a war against Austria and England, but Prussia later betrayed them and made an alliance with England which led to France allying with its sworn enemy for 200 years, Austria.

As part of their diplomatic strategy, the 11th daughter of the Austrian queen, Marie Antoinette, married into the French Royal Family at the age of 14.

For the sake of control of the country, the government at the time held the exclusive right to revenge against lawbreakers, 'punishment'.

And so the 'executions' which took the lives of the people became the symbol of the government's ultimate power.

The ones that carried out that power were the executioners.

While the family of executioners in Paris for generations, the Sansons, were 'guards of justice', they were a presence scorned as 'grim reapers' for killing of the brethren of the people...

Even while they contributed to society as doctors, they were reviled by society from the moment they were born.

In this time of revolution when ideals are sought and a sea of blood is spilled, who will survive?! Who is the true leader?! Who will be the one to find the way the new world should be——?! Among the revolution's sea of flames, what is reflected in the eyes of the Sanson Siblings that stand on the execution platforms that the people's lives flow into——?!!

Carte Map

Born 843 years after the death of Charlemagne, the country boasting the greatest productivity and population in Europe. Its capital is Paris, but in 1682 Louis XIV moved the center of the government to Versailles.

A city that developed in Northern France on a shoal in the Seine river. Since the year 508, it has been the capital of France. In 1682, Louis XIV moved capital operations southwest to Versailles. Now Paris is the core of France's economics, culture, and scholarship as France's second capital.

Histoire jusqu'à présent.

The story leading to the present.

Charles-Henri was born into the position of Paris's executioner, “Monsieur de Paris”, and the 4th head of the Sanson family like those before him for generations. As a result of that ‘birth’, his life followed a cruel fate. Since he was a child, Charles’ dream has been to ‘abolish executions’. Yet the family's karmic fate continuously blocks his way. While Charles is tormented by his occupation of killing people, he has grown to be a benevolent executioner.

The Sanson Family second daughter, Marie-Josèphe, possesses natural talent as an executioner. Since she was very little, she longed to become an executioner and finally won the right to be the executioner of Versailles Palace, the “Prevote de l’Hotel”.

One night, after the funeral of who had been known as the “Iron Law” of the Sanson family, the wife of the 2nd generation head of the household, Lady Marthe, Marie came to visit Charles. Picking up the “Memoirs of the First Sanson”, Charles recalled his family’s origins. The First Sanson had been a soldier, but he fell in love with an executioner’s daughter which began everything that led to his descendants suffering due to this occupation. The “original sin” —. Overcoming this family curse which was started because of ‘love’, Charles embraces his lofty ideals while Marie vows to overcome this karma —.

And France has reached a major turning point in its history. After a 60-year long reign, Louis XV has perished. The ones to inherit the country is the young crowned prince, Louis Auguste. and crowned princess Marie Antoinette. They, as well, are people whose fate is controlled by their ‘birth’. With the young king standing at the pinnacle of power and the power map of Versailles being redrawn, history has plunged into some huge waves....!!

14 Royal Coronation

Louis Auguste's coronation ceremony as "King Louis XVI" took place on June 11th 1775.

Fearful of the effects of the "Flour War" that had taken place in Paris in May of that year, the ceremony was moved to the Notre-Dame Cathedral located in Reims in the northeast near the country border.

*A commoner rebellion that occurred at the end of a food-supply crisis due to a bad harvest

no one would have imagined the disaster
that would occur 16
years later during which they would abandon Versailles and flee for the border—...

On this day when
the people burned
the image of the king and queen in
their minds,

HIS NEW

HIGHNESS

LONG LIVE

LET US NURTURE OUR LOVE IN ORDER TO BRING HAPPINESS TO ALL PEOPLE OF FRANCE — !!!

OUI, YOUR HIGHNESS.

WE UNSULLIED SOULS WILL PROTECT THIS NEW WORLD — !!!

And on this day, the coronation ceremony arrived. And the people placed high hopes on the purity of this new king and queen—...

One year earlier, May 10th 1774, the flame of Louis XV's life was snuffed out by smallpox—... And so the 15th's reign, filled with war and madness, ended.

Marquis de Sade

A Parisian aristocrat born in 1740.

A Colonel of a Dragoon regiment who fought in the Seven Years' War.

A bizarre man who, by wielding his political power as a lord and physical strength as a member of a Dragoon regiment, committed sexual assault and murder against women, girls, and boys.

(It is said that marriage to his sister was the cause of his twisted personality.)

I AM

Jeanne
de Valois-Saint-Rémy
Later Comtesse de la Motte

The ringleader of the 'Affair of the Diamond Necklace' which made Queen Antoinette hit rock bottom. Born in 1756 in the village of Fontette in Northeastern France. Moved to Paris at a young age and was neglected as a child.
